श्री सिकन्दर बख्त: सदर साहिबा, मैं इसके अलावा कुछ नहीं कर सकता हूं, मुझे खलप साहब बहुत अजीज हैं, साफ-सुथरे आदमी हैं, लेकिन यह कि जो बुनियादी बात थी उस बात को आपने अपने जवाब देने में बिल्कुल अवायड किया, जवाब नहीं दिया उसका, इसलिए अब मेरे पास इसके अलावा कोई चारा नहीं कि मैं खलप साहब से जवाब के खिलाफ प्रोटेक्ट करते हुए वाक-आऊट कर जाऊं।

(माननीय सदस्य सदन से बाहर चले गए।)

SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM: I hope that this shall be the last year for the Government of India to present the Budget for Uttar Pradesh and I also hope that the 1997-98 Budget would be presented in the State Legislature.

I hope the 1997-98 Budget would be presented in the State Legislature. The revenues of 1996-97 were estimated to be Rs. 15978.06 crores. There is an apparent reduction in the State tax and non-tax revenues. I say that it is apparent because the real reasons are few. Firstly, it is discontinuance of lotteries in the State. Secondly, the Central Government's decision to release grants for JRY directly to the district rural development agencies. As against this, revenue expenditure was Rs. 20,635.67 crores. There is a gap of about Rs. 4,500 crores on the revenue account. On the capital account the receipts are placed at Rs. 6,611.80 crores and the capital expenditure is Rs. 6,074.19 crores. Taking into to account the deficit in the revenue account, the surplus in the capital account, the public account and the opening surplus of Rs. 834.27 crores, the Budget for 1996-97 is expected to close with a surplus of Rs. 23.37 crores. The performance on the Plan side in the last four years has not been satisfactory. In the Annual Plan for 1996-97, it is proposed that the Plan expenditure will be Rs. 7,047.51 crores. The Central Plan expenditure will be Rs. 1,101.07 crores and the State Plan expenditure will be Rs. 5,940.64 crores. This includes an outlay of Rs. 225 crores under the Hill Areas Development Programme. Madam, I do not want to highlight a number of features of the Budget. All I wish to say is that large sums of money have been provided for rural development programmes, for creation of employment, for 5,000 new Ambedkar villages, for rural housing, for 2.40 lakh houses, for rural drinking water, for rural sanitation and assistance to destitute persons, widows, and handicapped persons. A large sum of money is being provided for Kisan pension and old-age pension schemes, for scholorships to students belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, OBCs and minorities, for opening primary schools and constructing buildings. The U.P. Electricity Board will energise 20,000 tubewells this year. For additional irrigation potential to minor irrigation, Rs. 160 crores have been provided and Rs. 1,641 have been provided for the budgeted irrigation projects. So far as Uttarakhand is concerned, a sum of Rs. 658.79 crore has been provided for implementation of schemes for Uttarakahand Madam, with these words, I commend the U.P. Budget and I request the hon. House to pass the Budget.

THE APPROPRIATION (NO. 4) BILL, 1996

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA): We shall now take up General Appropriation Bill.

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): I beg to move:

> "That the Bill to authorise payment and appropriation of certain further sums from and out of the Consolidated Fund of India for the services of the financial year 1996-97, as passed by Lok Sabha, be taken into consideration."
